

After the substantial had been despatched, toast, sentiments, patriotism, compliments and wit ruled the hour until it began to grow dark. John Meek delivered a happy speech, and ended a toast with a pun in it. The multitude was rent with shouts at it. Mr. A. P. Calhoun also delivered a very agreeable speech, which was received with boisterous applause. The officers each in order gave a toast, and such a roaring and waving of hats as followed, we imagine has not been since Caesar put on the purple. Col. Butler, His Honor the Mayor, and several other gentlemen were also called out, and gave pithy, warm and brief responses. Col. James S. Deas presided on the occasion.

Rumors of Peace.—Rumors have been rife at Washington that Mexico had accepted our proposals for peace, and had agreed to receive an American Minister to conclude a treaty. The Baltimore Sun publishes a letter from its correspondent at Saltillo, under date of the 21st December, which states that a report had arrived there direct from San Luis de Potosi, to the effect that the Mexican Congress had agreed to accept a Minister from the United States to treat for peace. He also states that Gen. Worth had received on the 20th December a letter of a very pacific character from Santa Anna. The Correspondent also says that an individual was in Saltillo, who stated that he had seen the bill passed by the Mexican Congress authorizing the appointment of a Commissioner to treat for peace, and that he saw it distributed in the form of a handbill and posted up in the City of Mexico and at San Luis de Potosi.

In reply to all this, the Union says that it has not been advised of any such report having been officially received at Washington, and thinks that if it had come from San Luis de Potosi, it would most probably have reached Gen. Taylor at Victoria. But dispatches have been received from the latter as late as January 7th, from Victoria, in which he is entirely silent upon the subject of any such report, but on the contrary, states that the last accounts from Mexico were to the 19th December at which time the Congress had taken up action in regard to the war.

Still more to misify the matter, we notice that the bill appropriating three millions of dollars, to be used by the President, in negotiating a peace, was taken up in the Senate on Tuesday. In opening the debate, Mr. Sevier, who from his position as Chairman of the Committee of Foreign Relations, we suppose is enabled "to speak by the card," stated that the President was satisfied by information he had received from Mexico, that a peace could be negotiated, and that he was ready to enter into such a negotiation, based on the cessation of New Mexico and California to the United States. In this uncertainty, we have nothing to do, but to watch this shadow of coming events.

The Misunderstanding at Rio.—A letter received by the New York Journal of Commerce from Rio Janeiro, dated 25th Nov., confirms the reports of the difficulties between the Brazilian government and our minister. The writer accounts in the following manner for the prejudice against Mr. Wise:

"The Brazilian government dislike Mr. Wise because he has been very instrumental in breaking up the slave trade—refusing to allow American merchants sold here notoriously for slaving, to sail under a sealed letter with the American flag. You know the laws about licensing vessels, and understand what I mean. Mr. Wise has, in doing this incurred the displeasure of the Brazilians, and hence their disposition to make difficulty and have his recall. Mr. Wise says the U. S. schooner Enterprise, that was condemned at the Navy Yard (Brooklyn) two years ago, has made three successful voyages to Africa after slaves, and is now on the fourth. She sold for $1,500, and in 3 months cleared her owners, to his knowledge, $9,500."

There seems to be some secrecy in the expedition now preparing at New Orleans for Mexico. The Bulletin says:

"The utmost activity prevails in the Quartermaster's and other departments in this city, expediting troops, provisions, stores, etc., to the coast of Mexico—a fleet of transports and store ships are now preparing, and are to be ready by the 26th inst.—the ships are generally of large size and among the finest in port—they are each to take on board four months' water and provisions for 400 men—they are chartered by the Government for 3 months, and their destination is kept perfectly secret, nor will their orders be opened until after they get to sea.

"It would appear to be a special expedition, that will assemble at some common rendezvous, and the whole force employed will be about 10,000 men.

"We do not pretend to have any correct idea where the storm is to burst, but we hope on the city and castle of Vera Cruz, and as Gen. Scott has returned to the coast after visiting Monterey and seeing Gen. Taylor, we presume the expedition, whatever may be the object, will be under his immediate command."

Defection of Volunteers.—Two of the companies of the North Carolina Regiment of Volunteers have determined not to enter the service. One of them, the Rowan company, have disbanded and gone home; the other, the Mecklenburg company, have resolved to offer their services to the President as Dragoons in the regular army. The cause of this defection is said to be the action of the Legislature in voting the money to the volunteers, and dissatisfaction with the field officers.—Lee News.

Shocking Murder.—A man of the name of Stark White, under the influence of mania a potu, near Fulton in Sumter District murdered his wife and two children by striking them on the back of the head with an axe, and afterwards cutting their throats with a razor. A servant girl, whom he pursued with the same intent, escaped and fled. He afterwards attempted to kill himself, but succeeded only in inflicting a severe wound. His wife, at the time of murder, was encephalic. Stark was arrested, and confined in Sumter goal on Sunday.—Even News.

Military.—The Hon. Caleb Cushing, once a member of Congress, then special minister to China, and now a member of the Massachusetts Legislature, was elected on the 15th ult. Colonel of the Massachusetts Regiment of Volunteers.

IT HAS PERFECTLY CURED ME!

PHILADELPHIA, December 1837.
To Dr. D. Jayne—Dear Sir—The astonishing and miraculous beneficial effects your valuable EXPECTORANT had on my neighbor, the Rev. Mr. Rushing, made so favorable impression on my mind, that after consulting with several friends, and learning that you were a regular Practitioner of Medicine, I called upon you, and purchased half a dozen bottles, and told you that if I lived to take them, you should have a good report from me.
I am alive and well this day! Thanks to a merciful God, and your Expectant; and now I come forward cheerfully to fulfill my promise. For twenty long years had I been a constant sufferer from the effects of a hard, dry cough, pain in the breast, and difficulty of breathing; the last five of which, chills and fevers, every spring and fall, added to my misery. I was worn away to a mere skeleton; with the greatest difficulty only could I get up and down stairs; my appetite was gone, and my strength had so far failed me, that my friends were persuaded I could not survive many weeks, unless I obtained relief. Indeed, six, my situation was so perfectly miserable to myself, and so distressing to my family, that I felt willing to die, whenever it should please the Master to take me home. But I heard of your medicine, and relief came. Yes! it proved the "Balm of Gilead" to my poor afflicted body. Before I had taken one bottle, I experienced a mitigation of all my symptoms, and to my great joy I found in the continued use of it the happiest relief. In short, Sir, IT HAS MADE A PERFECT CURE OF ME—and I can truly say, I have no desire to be better.

With everlasting gratitude, I am, dear Sir, your obliged friend, MARY GILL.

Mr. Editor:—During the canvass for a Senator and member of the last Legislature, I made the assertion that at a previous session of the Legislature Mr. Griffin offered a resolution for the suppression of "the retailing of spirituous liquors," which was flatly contradicted. Now, for the satisfaction of the public and in vindication of myself, I refer to the Journal of the Senate and House of Representatives of the South Carolina Legislature, at its regular session of 1839, pages 166—169, where will be found the following:

"The following preamble and resolutions submitted by Mr. Griffin, were taken up:

Whereas, from numerous memorials, and presentments of Grand Jurors, on the subject of the License Laws, which have been presented during the present session of the Legislature, it is manifest that the public mind is much agitated, in relation to the evils of intemperance, and the suppression of dram shops, and the retailing of spirituous liquors; and whereas, this Legislature, although declining, from considerations of policy, to adopt any hasty prohibitory enactments on these subjects, yet feels that some notice thereof is demanded by a proper respect for the great body of the people, whose sentiments are embodied in the papers alluded to: Therefore,

Resolved, That this Legislature regards the retailing of spirituous liquors as an evil, which it is desirable should be suppressed.

Resolved, As the sense of this Legislature, that the Commissioners of Roads, Bridges, and Ferries, in the respective districts and parishes of this State, and other bodies with like powers, have the discretion, under the existing laws, to grant or withhold licenses to retail spirituous liquors, as they may deem expedient.

Mr. Blakeney moved to lay the resolutions on the table, and the yeas and nays being called for, the following vote was taken—

Yeas—The Hon. D. L. Wardlaw, Speaker, Messrs. Arnold, Bellinger, Blakeney, Boozar, Bradley, Brockman, Burt, Caldwell, Carr, Carroll, DeSaussure, Eckhard, Elfe, Elmore, Wm. Evans, F. N. Garvin, Jacobs, Jamison, Loe, McKinney, Middleton, Moffett, Moody, Moore Murray, Neel, John Palmer, P. P. Palmer, Samuel J. Palmer, L. J. Patterson, Phillips, Powell, Saxon, Schierle, Wilder, Williams, Williamson, Witherspoon—39.
Nays—Messrs. Belin, Buchanan, Crockett, David, John Douglass, Ervin, S. N. Ervin, Fair, Frost, Fulmore, Gavin, Griffin, Hibbler, Hunt, McDowell, Memminger, E. G. Palmer, Wm. Reed, Smith, Wardlaw, and Wingate—30.
So the resolutions were laid on the table.

The following is from the proceedings of the next day—

"The following gentlemen asked and obtained leave to record their votes on the question of laying on the table, yesterday, resolutions in relation to temperance; and, on their names being called, voted as follows—

Yeas—Messrs. J. P. Reed, Rogers, Gage, J. B. Reed, Whitefield, Whaley, Hopkins, Marsh, James Douglass, Allison, and Lyles—11.

Nays—Messrs. W. W. Garvin, Taylor, Hibbler, Wimshill, and Johnson—5.

I deem these extracts sufficient proof of the truth of my charge. JOHN MARSH.

OBITUARY.

Departed this life, on Thursday the 22nd ult., after a short illness, Mrs. JULIA A. HENDERSON, wife of Mr. Nathaniel Henderson, in the 17th year of her age.

Seldom do we receive a more impressive admonition of the false, and delusive nature of our brightest and most flattering anticipations, than is furnished by the death of this individual. She had just entered upon the scene of active life, buoyant with youth, and health, the pride, and admiration of her friends, and surrounded by circumstances which, whilst they left but little to ask from the present, pointed to the future with hope. A few months ago she was united in wedlock to the man who had won her affections, and who, had she been permitted to have lived, was every way qualified to promote the tranquility and happiness of her life. But in less than one short year from that time, all her bright and flattering hopes were doomed to be disappointed by death.

In all the relations of life which she sustained, her conduct was truly exemplary. Possessing accomplishments, which made her an ornament to the circle in which she moved, she was free from vanity, and ostentation; her modest, and unassuming deportment, being equalled only by the kindness, and benevolence, of her disposition. Though young her amiable and engaging manners had already secured her the friendship and esteem of a large circle of acquaintance, who will sincerely regret her untimely fate. Whilst to a fond father, an only sister, and a bereaved husband, this event is fraught with that deep and poignant anguish which can be alleviated only by time, and which admits only of the consolations of religion.

ANOTHER CASE OF NEURALGIA.

CURED BY ROWAN'S MAGIC LOTION!!!

Mr. J. T. Rowand.—Sir—Several weeks since, a daughter of mine about nine years old, was attacked with the most excruciating pains in her hands, limbs and various parts of the body. For several days she was almost frantic from pain, uttering cries and shrieks continually, a burning fever coming on, seemed almost impossible that she could live. When in this condition and not having closed her eyes for 36 hours, a friend of yours called and applied your celebrated MAGIC LOTION, and in less than five minutes the pain was entirely removed! A few hours after the pain returned in some measure, but yielded us at first, almost instantly to the Lotion, and contrary to my expectations, my child recovered and is now in good health.
